

Nanette Silverberg, MD, MPHc, FAAD, FAAP

Chief of Pediatric Dermatology

Mt. Sinai Health Systems

Clinical Professor of Pediatrics and Dermatology

Icahn School of Medicine at Mt. Sinai

New York, New York, USA

Dr. Nanette B. Silverberg is Chief of Pediatric Dermatology for Mt Sinai Health Systems and Clinical Professor of Pediatrics and Dermatology at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mt Sinai. Dr. Silverberg trained in Pediatrics and Dermatology at SUNY Downstate. After completion of a Chief Residency year in dermatology, she went on to train in pediatric dermatology at the Children's Memorial Hospital of Chicago of the Northwestern University Medical School. Dr. Silverberg has two decades of clinical experience and has over 250 publications and research studies on a variety of important dermatologic topics that affect children including inflammatory skin disorders such as atopic dermatitis, vitiligo and psoriasis; as well, she has published extensively on the therapy of molluscum and warts. Dr. Silverberg is senior editor of the textbook Pediatric Skin of Color and author of the Atlas of Pediatric Cutaneous Biodiversity. Dr. Silverberg is a Senior Associate Editor of the journals Cutis and Pediatric Dermatology, sits on the Board of Vitiligo Support International, has chaired plenary sessions and published an atlas and textbook on the topics of pediatric skin disease in children of all colors. Dr. Silverberg has been the recipient of multiple teaching awards and has been cited by Castle Connolly, New York Magazine, and Super Doctors of The New York Times.